

Linium Website Samples - Before and after the Precise Prose rewrite

Home Page Core Offerings Introduction - Before

Linium practices "intelligent" IT consulting, delivering value and quality for our clients' consulting dollars. Through innovative solutions and our deep consultancy composed of industry experts, Linium is committed to aligning your business objectives with your IT initiatives.

After:

Aligning IT initiatives with business objectives is the quick path to leveraging true value from your consulting dollars. Linium delivers intelligent consulting solutions focused on your needs, your business objectives, and your business culture. Our core offerings include:

Staff Description - Before (misspellings were on the website):

Linium's ITMC Consultants and Consultants are amongst the most knowledgable & certified people in the nation. Our ITMC consultants on average possess more than 20 years of direct IT Management experience and hold the industries most crucial certifications such as ITIL.

After:

Linium's ITMC consultants average over 20 years' direct IT management experience, along with multiple ITIL certifications from Foundation to Practitioner. Their knowledge and experience are unsurpassed.

Project Management Approach - Before

Providing clear direction, process efficiency, timely response and quality outcomes for complex enterprise IT and business intelligence projects requires disciplined and flexible project management. Linium is committed to applying Project Management excellence to each engagement. With Linium project management you always know exactly where your IT project is. Linium project managers coordinate the efforts of the implementation team, internal and external resources and your IT management to ensure the key issues of cost, time, quality and above all, client satisfaction are realized.

After

Extraordinary project management is how Linium repeatedly delivers excellence in IT implementations. Project management that is disciplined, detail oriented and adept at change management provides clear direction, efficiency, timely response, and quality outcomes no matter how complex the project.

With Linium project management you always know exactly how well your project is meeting its timeline and budget. Our project managers are experts at coordinating the efforts of all internal and external team members to ensure that the key metrics of cost, time, quality, and above all, your satisfaction, are more than satisfied.